Yearbook

To The Class Of 2009,

"People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered.
Love them anyway.

If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives.
Do good anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous.
Be happy anyway.

The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow.
Do good anyway.

Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable.
Be frank and honest anyway.

People favor underdogs but will follow only top dogs.
Fight for the underdog anyway.

People may need help, but may attack you if you help them.
Help people anyway.

What you spend your years building may be destroyed overnight.
Build anyway.

Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough.
Give the world the best you have anyway."

-Author Unknown

Principal's Message

Four years ago, as the newly appointed assistant principal, I welcomed a young, wide-eyed group of freshmen to Peabody Veterans Memorial High School. These students were destined to be the class of 2009. In my short orientation address I informed them that their high school experience would be challenging. I encouraged them to take full advantage of every opportunity in the short time they would be here. I included a paraphrased quote from one of my favorite movies, Goonies. This is your time You will only be 15, 16, 17 once. Make the most of these years because soon they will be over. As this episode of your student career ends and the next begins, I am optimistic that you have taken full advantage of the opportunities PVMHS offered and that you will use your experiences wisely. On behalf of the teachers and staff I wish you success in all of your future endeavors. When you look back on these years, I hope you will be proud to be a Tanner.

Good luck,

Edward A. Sapienza

DEDICATED TO THE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE ARMED SERVICES

Hero's Price

*Sergeant Chapman, soldier, hero.
To serve is soldiers' sacrifice.
Heroes all, soldiers mission,
Some will die for freedom's sake.*

*Duty to serve, duty to risk,
to run the gauntlet, his life for country.
He paid the price for our security.
The ultimate cost for freedom's sake.*

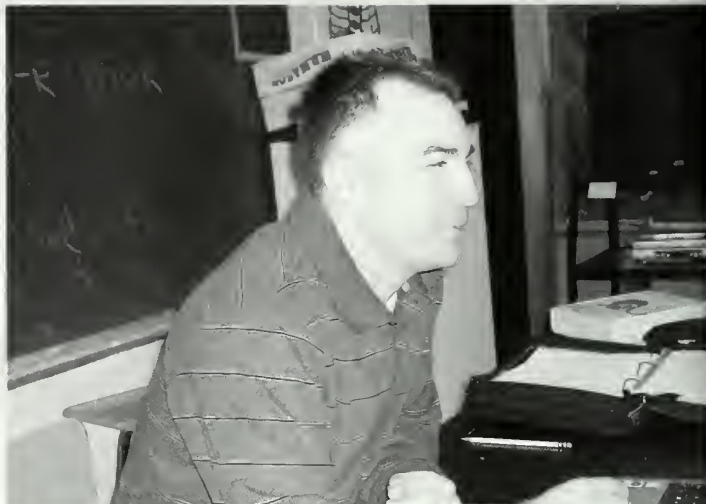

*Families pride though little solace.
Sacrificed... their son for country.
His parents are home-side heroes.
Their hearts are torn 'tween grief and pride.*

*The wife and children shall not forget the husband, father they loved so well.
Sacrifice for us they bear,
the solemn grief, with pride they wear.*

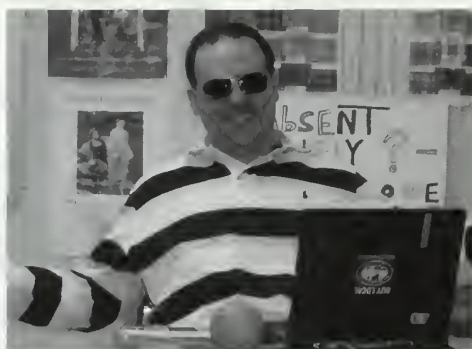

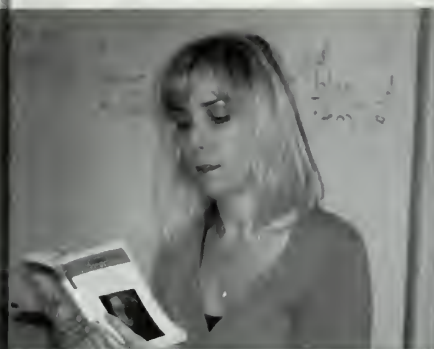

*Patriot lives cost, born America.
Fallen soldier joins freedom's greats.
We citizens grieve each price of life.
Patriot life paid to secure the USA.*

Roger W Hancock

Congratulations
Class of 2009.

“This season was a great season for us. We overcame all odds and exceeded everyone's expectations. Seniors, our hard work over the past four seasons was evident in our back-to-back-to-back league championships. The way we bonded at the 'pahsta dinnahs' turned into success on the field. We had many memories and many yellow cards, making it a season that we will never forget.”

Stocks plummet as years of excess in the U.S. housing market and lax supervision of financial institutions contribute to the greatest economic crisis since the Great Depression.

Unemployment rate hits 16-year high in January 2009

Economic Crisis

With buying power declining in the consumer marketplace, companies nationwide are forced to lay off workers. The national unemployment rate hits 7.2 percent in December and is rising steadily. The hardest hit states are Michigan, Rhode Island, California and South Carolina.
